PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

PRAYER RESPONSE Nunc dimittis Geoffrey Burgon

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
to be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

Amen.

RESPOND

CALL TO THE OFFERING

Richard E. Spalding

OFFERTORY

Magnificat in C minor

Sir George Dyson

My soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior, for he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed, for he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him, throughout all generations.

He hath showed strength with his arm;
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat,
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He, remembering his mercy, hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers — Abraham and his seed — for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen.

Though often ascribed masculine or feminine pronouns in prose and poetry, God is unbound by human concepts of gender.

Phil: Shawn, three years ago you arrived at Old South and began to minister with and among us. Thank you and bless you for the gift that you have been to the Old South Church.

Shawn: I thank Old South Church in Boston, its members and friends, for the love, kindness and support shown me these past three years. I ask forgiveness for the mistakes I have made. I am grateful for the ways my leadership has been accepted. As I leave, I carry with me all I have learned here.

People: We receive your thankfulness, offer forgiveness, and accept that you now leave to minister elsewhere. We express our gratitude for your time among us. We ask your forgiveness for our mistakes. Your influence on our faith and faithfulness will not leave us at your departure.

Shawn: I forgive you and accept your gratitude, trusting that our time together, and our parting, are pleasing to God.

People: We do, with the help of God.

NOTES ON TODAY'S MUSIC

Healey Willan was born in England in 1880 and emigrated to Canada in 1913. He settled in Toronto and served first music director of St. Paul's Church, Bloor Street, and later and more famously at the Church of St. Mary Magdalene, where he stayed until shortly before his death in 1968. He also taught music theory at Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music. His chorale prelude on Slane (Be Now My Vision) is his last published composition. The hymn melody can be heard plainly against a gentle accompaniment, alternating between the French horn stop in the tenor and harmonic flute in the soprano.

John Eggert has been a member of the music faculty at Concordia University, Saint Paul, MN since 1978 and teaches organ, music theory, composition, service playing, improvisation, and organ literature there. His Toccata on "Deo Gracias" is based upon The Agincourt Hymn, an English folk song written some time in the early 15th century to recount the 1415 battle of Agincourt in which the English army defeated that of the French. Hymn texts for nearly every season of the church year have been set to the tune.

Welcome to Old South Church in Boston. We are a progressive Christian church first gathered in 1669. The Church played a significant role in early American history. Today, Old South Church continues to outfit itself for mission and ministry in the 21st century as a thriving church in the heart of Boston.

If you are interested in deepening your participation, or if you just love Old South, it's time to think about membership. Contact Interim Associate Minister Katherine Schofield at katherine@oldsouth.org

HEARING ASSISTANCE

A NOTE ON THE INCLUSIVE DIMENSIONS OF GOD'S GRACE

Old South Church in Boston, in the name of its host, Jesus Christ, and in the spirit of Christ's invitation carved into the stone of this church's portico, "Behold I Set Before You an Open Door," welcomes all who seek to know God. Following the One who we believe is Sovereign and Savior, we affirm that each individual is a child of God, and recognize that we are called to be like one body with many members, seeking with others of every race, ethnicity, creed, class, age, gender, marital status, physical or mental ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression to journey together toward the promised realm of God. We invite everyone to join in the common life and mission of our reconciling community through participation and leadership in this congregation, and by fully sharing in the worship, rites and sacraments of this church. As we all move forward with the work of this church, we commit ourselves to making justice and inclusivity a reality in this congregation and in the world. On the threshold of Christ's open door, we rely upon the healing, unconditional nature of God's love and grace to be our help and guide.

MIDDLE PASSAGE REMEMBRANCE INSTALLATION

In the Portico for the month of August

Go to tinyurl.com/OSCMiddlePassageRemembrance to learn more

Go to tinyurl.com/OSCMiddlePassageVideo for an introduction to the Middle Passage

The Middle Passage Installation of Remembrance, in Old South's portico, presents a large banner (17' x 5') featuring the image of human persons packed as cargo into a ship. Juxtaposed to this cruel, dehumanizing practice, are bold images -- faces and families -- of those who might be the descendants of enslaved persons, or what these persons might have looked like before having been enslaved. The United Nations has designated August 23rd the International Day for the Remembrance of the Slave Trade and its Abolition. “The slave trade is not merely a thing of the past -- it has shaped the world we live in, it has molded the face of modern societies, creating indissoluble ties between peoples, irreversibly transforming economies, cultures and customs across the world,” said UNESCO Director-General Irina Bokova. “The slave trade concerns not only people of African descent but the whole of humanity.”

KENTUCKY FLOOD RELIEF

Following the devastating floods that killed 39 people and decimated the community, the Christian Service and Outreach Committee just approved a $1,000 matching grant to support disaster relief in Eastern Kentucky. The funds are being given through Team Eastern and the state fund to support short-term needs and long-term rebuilding. To be part of the match, please mark checks or cash with "Hurricane relief", give through the church giving portal at tinyurl.com/osc-online-giving, or text 44-321 and enter the code FLOO.

HELP US CREATE AN EXTRAVAGANT WELCOME

Go to tinyurl.com/OSCFallHospSignUp to volunteer by September 14th

Change is certainly in the air! We've welcomed Rick Spalding as Interim Senior Minister, even as we bid a tearful farewell to Acting Associate Minister Shawn Fiedler. Days are getting shorter, and (thankfully) noticeably cooler! BUT - one thing is constant - and that is our commitment to being outrageously welcoming to everyone coming through our doors or joining us online. Once again the call is out - please make our welcome possible by signing up for Hospitality for Thursdays and Sundays in October, November, and December. If you've never served before - please consider giving one or two Thursdays or Sundays a try. We've lost many regulars and need new volunteers to help fill the ranks. Planning ahead isn't easy - but it would be very helpful if you would fill out the form now. If changes need to be made later on that is fine.

MASKED SECTIONS OF THE SANCTUARY AND CHAPEL

Did you know that we have masked sections in the Sanctuary and Chapel? We do! It's in the left transept (under the balcony) of the Sanctuary. In the Gordon Chapel, the Columbarium is the designated section. In both sections, masks are required. If you still aren't sure how to get to either section, ask an usher!

GREEN TIP: TIME TO RETHINK YOUR LAWN

Lawns may seem like a trivial place to focus your eco-energies, but they cover about 40 million acres of the United States. To keep all this grass green, Americans use about 59 million pounds of pesticides on their lawns and gardens each year, according to the Environmental Protection Agency, and an astonishing 9 billion gallons of water outdoors each day. If your lawn has suffered with the recent drought, go to tinyurl.com/RethinkLawns to learn about some alternatives.
